Perceiving Napoleon

Tuesday, 18 September
4:30 - 5:30
Knights Room
Pius Library

Ancient Origins of Napoleon’s Symbols of Power
Illustrated talk by Dr. Anna Amelung, Dept. of Modern and Classical Languages

Perceiving Napoleon in Different Countries
Three Foreign Language Assistants currently living in the French, German and Spanish Language Houses (Guillaume Teboul, France; Belén Gauna, Argentina; Verena Hufgard, Germany), will comment on how Napoleon is perceived in their countries.

Light refreshments.

Note: Symbols of Power, Napoleon and the Art of the Empire Style, 1800-1815 can be seen at the Saint Louis Art Museum through Sunday, September 16. Perceiving Napoleon was inspired by this exhibition.