Accent on you – Accenture Internship Program

Interesting work, training, innovation and future. Welcome to Accent on You, Accenture Internship Program, you will discover the exciting consulting field with the global leader. You would participate in projects to implement the latest IT, process reengineering or new business solutions for the leading companies in our country.

Would you be interested?

The trainee work is part-time and paid so that you can continue with your studies.

The work includes:

- Helping with Functional Design and Project Definitions (requirements, gap analysis, etc.).
- Working along staff in client meetings.

Qualifications:

- We are looking for students in Erasmus in Madrid native from UK, Ireland, Australia or US.
- Bachelor’s in Business Administration or Engineering Degrees with some knowledge in Spanish language

If you are interested, send your resume to bolsatrabajo-madrid@slu.edu.