Fundación Sanders
Communication + Marketing

We’re looking for students pursuing the following studies: Journalism, Advertising, Communication Studies or Marketing, and who have following profiles:

- Excellent journalistic and creative writing skills.
- Enthusiasm for digital technologies applied to education.
- Stays abreast of best practices related to managing social networks.
- Graphic Design tools.

Other qualities that fit the ideal candidate:

- Responsibility. Must be a person who can work independently, solid planning skills and able to organize tasks so that deadlines are met.
- Proactivity. This is an essential requirement. We are looking for someone able to lead initiatives and contribute ideas to promote the visibility of the foundation.
- Teamwork. Able to work in a team environment and with diverse functional backgounds.
- Written and spoken English.

Specific tasks:

- Generation and search for interesting content to share across our social networks: LinkedIn, Twitter, Youtube and Facebook.
- Preparation and coordination of blog contents.
- Maintain contact database.
- Other duties related to a department of communication.

To apply, please send your resume to bolsatrabajo-madrid@slu.edu