Repsol S.A. is a global energy company based in Madrid, Spain. Its main fields of business are oil (exploration, production and refinery), natural gas and butane.

They are looking for:

Students that are majoring in International Business, and are interested in learning about the professional world.

What will the internship entail?

The internship will have to last a minimum of three months. It will either be a full time or a part time internship.

If you are interested, please:

- See Patrice Burns for more information.
- Contact or apply through by sending your inquiries or information to bolsatrabajo-madrid@slu.edu