Graduate Summer Program

Earn your M.A. without leaving your job!

SPANISH LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE
MASTER OF ARTS IN SPANISH

23 June – 28 July
Our intensive five-week summer session allows you to take up to three graduate seminars (3-9 credits) per summer. A total of 30 credits are needed to complete the degree. Additional coursework may be completed online during the academic year.

Designed especially for motivated and committed school teachers of Spanish, the M.A. program is taught by our permanent Ph.D. graduate faculty. Earning the degree will broaden your knowledge of Hispanic literature and culture, develop you as an educator and advance your career.

Our graduate program also welcomes visiting students who hold B.A. degrees in Spanish or equivalent or who are currently pursuing a graduate degree from another university.

Earn your M.A. in Spanish in Two Ways

3 or 4 summers*

SUMMER 2016 + SUMMER 2017 + SUMMER 2018 + ...

or

2 summers and 1 academic year*

SUMMER 2016 + FALL 2016 + SPRING 2017 + SUMMER 2017

*Total of 30 credits
Earn your M.A. in Spanish in Madrid without leaving your job!

SUMMER 2016

- Latin American Writers and the Spanish Civil War
- Sudden Fiction: Hispanic Short Short Story (includes a trip to Barcelona)*
- Contemporary Latin American Novel
- Spanish Second Language Acquisition

* Trip fee not included in tuition

FALL 2016

- Twentieth-Century Spanish Prose Masters
- Spanish Romanticism
- Women’s Literature in Latin America (Online)
- Peninsular Spanish Poetry 1965–Present
- History of the Spanish Language
- Spanish Grammar and its Place in the Classroom

SPRING 2017

- Spanish Novel after 1970
- Early Latin American Novel
- Don Quijote
- Carpe Verbum: Spanish Women Poets
- Method and Technology: Teaching Spanish

SUMMER 2017

- Almodóvar vs. Buñuel: Spanish Cinema from Postmodernity to Surrealism
- The Fantastic in Latin American Literature
- Latin American Modernismo
- Spanish in the World

SUMMER 2018

- Twentieth-Century Spanish Novel
- Madrid in Spanish Literature
- Spanish Grammar and its Place in the Classroom
- Contemporary Latin American Poetry

Saint Louis University reserves the right to change or cancel courses.
Character: Saint Louis University, founded in 1818, is a private, Jesuit university. The Madrid Campus, founded in 1967, was the first American university officially recognized by the Madrid province higher education authorities.

Enrollment: 650 undergraduate and graduate students study with us during the fall and spring semesters. The summer M.A. in Spanish program hosts up to 30 graduate students.

Library: Professional librarians staff the library, with a collection specifically developed to support our graduate students. Students in the M.A. in Spanish program have complete access to the University’s electronic databases and resources as well as to other libraries in Madrid, including the Bibloteca Nacional.

Faculty: All graduate faculty are recognized scholars and hold Ph.D.’s. In addition to teaching, they serve as advisors and mentors during the summers and throughout the year.

Summer Housing: Graduate students have the option of living with host families or renting private apartments. Assistance finding apartments is available for individuals, couples and families. Host family housing fees for Summer 2015 were €1350 for the five-week session.

Visa Requirements: Entry visas to enter Spain are generally not required for U.S. students who plan to study during the summers. Students of other nationalities should check with their corresponding Spanish consulates. Visas may be required for students who wish to continue their studies during the academic year.

Tuition: Summer 2015 tuition was €600 per credit. Summer 2016 tuition rates will be available in January, 2016.

Registration: Registration for the summer M.A. in Spanish program opens on February 17, 2016.

Application Procedures and Deadlines:
- Rolling admissions
- Deadline to apply: May 30, 2016
- Online application available on our webpage: http://slu.edu/madrid