8:00
Registration, Coffee and Conversation

8:30
Background and Benefits  Gayle Rogan, PhD, Director

What is 1818 ACC? Isn’t it just like AP? What’s in this for my school, colleagues, students? What’s in it for me? What am I doing at this meeting? What is expected of me? What did I get myself into?

10:00
Academic Expectations  Gayle Rogan, PhD

10:00
Students in Transition: College Students in High School

Topics and issues unique to first-year college students from a student development perspective. What about when those “first-year college students” are still sitting in a high school classroom?

11:00
Looks Like High School: Feels Like College

Course expectations. Course syllabi. Student performance expectations. Student assessment. Use of Pius XII Memorial Library. Classroom visits by Program Director, Program Coordinator and University Liaisons.

Students’ Perspective: What Do I Tell Them About . . .?

The differences between 1818 ACC, AP, and other concurrent enrollment programs. Why register for college credit? When and how to register for college credit. Which colleges accept SLU credit. Deciding later to register for credit. Transferring credits. Using Banner.

12:00
Lunch

12:30
Attendees may choose between the two remaining sessions

Nuts and Bolts: Procedures, Processes, & Priorities  Matthew Gerst, Assistant Director

Required for School Coordinators

OR
Brief orientation to Pius XII Library resources and services, including procedures for scheduling school visits, and utilizing available resources.