How Did You Get Your Awesome Job?

Department of American Studies * Spring 2015 with Julie Dunn-Morton (Fine Art Curator) and Charles Brown (Head of Reference) at the

ST. LOUIS MERCANTILE LIBRARY

The St. Louis Mercantile Library, established in 1846, is the oldest general library west of the Mississippi. Today, it houses collections focused on westward expansion, American rail and river transportation, and the history of St. Louis. It has over 250,000 books in its collection. The special collections include millions of archival materials, including presidential letters, early travel diaries, Civil War-era letters, and art by George Caleb Bingham, Thomas Hart Benton, and other American regionalists.

Friday, April 17, 2015
2:00pm-4:00pm
St. Louis Mercantile Library
Thomas Jefferson Library Building
University of Missouri–St. Louis
One University Blvd.
St. Louis, MO 63131-4400

Please RSVP to Emily Lutenski (elutensk@slu.edu) by Friday, April 10, 2015 so transportation can be arranged.