Film Studies Interdisciplinary Minor

Film Studies is an 18-hour interdisciplinary minor program, the hours of which may be broken down as follows:

Required Foundational Courses - 3 hours selected from:
- CMM-1400 Film Criticism
- ENGL-2750 Introduction to Film

Electives - 12 hours selected from qualifying courses such as:
- CMM/FSTD-2510 Video Production and Design
- CMM/FSTD-3120 Media Scriptwriting
- CMM/FSTD-4430 Culture, Technology and Communication
- ENGL/FSTD-3180 Film
- ENGL/FSTD-2750 Film Culture and Literature
- ENGL/FSTD-3120 Media Screenwriting
- ENGL/FSTD-4170 American Film History
- ENGL/FSTD-4180 American Film Genres
- FR/FSTD-4610 French Cinema I
- FR/FSTD-4650 French Cinema II
- GR-4350 German Film
- HIST-3600 History of Film in the U.S.
- HIST-3930 Special Topics: African Americans in Mass Media
- IT/FSTD-3200 Topics: International Film
- SPAN 4370 Latin American Literature and Films

An Internship / Capstone Course Concludes the Film Studies Program

For more information, contact:
Vincent Casaregola, Ph.D.
Director of Film Studies
314.977.7115