Jewish Community Relations Council of St. Louis seeks Applicants for Fall 2016 Poverty Intern

JCRC of St. Louis is currently seeking applicants for the position of Poverty Intern to engage in anti-hunger and anti-poverty activism in the St. Louis community.

Fellow will work approximately 10 hours per week from approximately early September, 2016 through mid-December 2016 (with breaks for final exam periods and periods when school is not in session). The Fellow selected will arrange a specific work schedule with his or her supervisor at the JCRC. A stipend in the amount of $1250 will be provided to the Fellow.

Interested candidates should forward a resume, list of at least two references and statement of interest. Application deadline is April 18. Submit application to Gail Wechsler, Director of Domestic Issues/Social Justice at the JCRC of St. Louis. Please submit application electronically to gwechsler@jcrcstl.org

Requirements:

1. Must be a current undergraduate student.

2. Must be willing to organize and help plan anti-hunger programs, including a fall event focused on a national Fighting Poverty with Faith mobilization (October or November 2016).

3. Strong background and interest in social justice work preferred.

For more information, call 314-442-3894.