BROKEN BRANCHES - A woman recalls her youth and being sent to live in Israel to escape the invasion of Poland during WWII. Her story is told visually through the animations of her granddaughter.

JOURNEY OF A FREEDOM FIGHTER - A Palestinian freedom fighter's journey from armed resistance to cultural resistance when he drops his weapon and joins The Freedom Theatre.

MINERITA - Women near Bolivian mines struggle to survive in a place that is hostile to them both environmentally and where brutal violence is inflicted upon them from male miners.

RAINY SEASON - An intimate look at a family dealing with the loss of their young son due to unexploded land mines set in the context of post-war Vietnam.