JOHN COOK SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

Evening Master of Business Administration

Saint Louis University is a Catholic, Jesuit institution that values academic excellence, life-changing research, compassionate health care, and a strong commitment to faith and service.

Founded in 1818, the University fosters the intellectual and character development of nearly 14,000 students on two campuses in St. Louis, Missouri, and Madrid, Spain. Building on a legacy of nearly 200 years, Saint Louis University continues to move forward with an unwavering commitment to a higher purpose, a greater good.

OVERVIEW

The ideal option for working professionals, the John Cook School of Business evening Master of Business Administration program is flexible and tailored to accommodate demanding schedules.

Courses are offered in the evenings Monday through Thursday, enabling you to complete the program while fulfilling your ongoing professional and personal responsibilities. On average, students complete the evening MBA program in two and a half years but are allotted up to five years, if necessary. This allows you to earn a degree at a pace that maintains a balance between your personal and professional life.

Inspired by SLU’s Catholic, Jesuit mission of educating the whole person, seeking truth and serving others, the program equips you to excel in the global business marketplace. As an evening MBA student, you will also have the opportunity to take part in the University’s study abroad programs through an intensive, two-week course.

After completing the program, you emerge more marketable, have an expanded networking base and are equipped to accept any challenge, leading to a return on your investment.

Curriculum

The Cook School’s highly regarded faculty continues to review and enhance the part-time MBA program curriculum to reflect the current demand in the workforce for additional training in decision making and analytics.

As you pursue your MBA degree, you have the option to concentrate your elective course work in one of the following emphasis areas:

- Accounting
- Economics
- Entrepreneurship
- Finance
- Health industries
- Human resources management
- Information technology management
- International business
- Management
- Marketing
- Nonprofit organizations
- Project management
- Real Estate
- Supply chain management

Additionally, professional effectiveness modules in areas such as communication, career development and coaching develop strong ethical and technical skills in our students.

Combined with the expertise and dedication of our faculty, the program prepares students for a rewarding experience by giving them the tools necessary to create real and lasting change.

Accreditation

The SLU MBA is accredited by the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business International, the premier accrediting body for business schools.
