JOHN COOK SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

Master of International Business, Executive Format

Saint Louis University is a Catholic, Jesuit institution that values academic excellence, life-changing research, compassionate health care, and a strong commitment to faith and service.

Founded in 1818, the University fosters the intellectual and character development of nearly 14,000 students on two campuses in St. Louis, Missouri, and Madrid, Spain. Building on a legacy of nearly 200 years, Saint Louis University continues to move forward with an unwavering commitment to a higher purpose, a greater good.

OVERVIEW

The graduate business programs at Saint Louis University’s John Cook School of Business prepare students for the global business world with a curriculum firmly grounded in business theory and academic learning. Students develop a thorough understanding of values, teamwork, communication and leadership skills, and they learn how to use them for strategic problem solving.

The Master of International Business at Saint Louis University is offered in an executive format and provides an innovative response to managers who want to gain significant international operations expertise.

The program provides an exemplary mix of curriculum, professional contacts and personal development experiences that will provide students with strengthened business knowledge, expertise in international business practices and enhanced competency in international cultural issues. A two-week study abroad experience immerses students into new cultures with guest speakers and visits to local business, government and cultural sites.

The 21-month program combines on-campus and virtual classes, requiring attendance in person only one Saturday per month, from 7:45 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. A second Saturday class per month is delivered virtually with the option to attend on campus.

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

• Transcript(s)
• GMAT scores
• Resume
• Professional goal statement

ADMISION CRITERIA

• Applicants must possess an undergraduate degree or its equivalent and at least two years of professional experience.
• Applicants with limited professional experience may be asked to sit for the GMAT.
• Applicants must be available to attend classes in person one Saturday per month.

The graduate business programs at Saint Louis University’s John Cook School of Business prepare students for the global business world with a curriculum firmly grounded in business theory and academic learning. Students develop a thorough understanding of values, teamwork, communication and leadership skills, and they learn how to use them for strategic problem solving.

The Master of International Business at Saint Louis University is offered in an executive format and provides an innovative response to managers who want to gain significant international operations expertise.

The program provides an exemplary mix of curriculum, professional contacts and personal development experiences that will provide students with strengthened business knowledge, expertise in international business practices and enhanced competency in international cultural issues. A two-week study abroad experience immerses students into new cultures with guest speakers and visits to local business, government and cultural sites.

The 21-month program combines on-campus and virtual classes, requiring attendance in person only one Saturday per month, from 7:45 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. A second Saturday class per month is delivered virtually with the option to attend on campus.
Master of International Business, Executive Format

FACULTY

Hadi Alhorr, Ph.D.
Mamoun Benmamoun, Ph.D.
Brad Carlson, Ph.D.
Jim Fisher, Ph.D., Marketing Department Chair
Muhammad Islam, Ph.D.
Morris Kalliny, Ph.D.
John Keithley, Ph.D.

Seung H. Kim, Ph.D., International Business Department Chair, Paul G. Lorenzini Endowed Professor in International Business, Director of the Boeing Institute of International Business

Alireza Nasseh, Ph.D.
Jase Ramsey, Ph.D.
Nitish Singh, Ph.D.
Hongxin (John) Zhao, Ph.D.

APPLICATION DEADLINE

E.M.I.B.

FALL | Rolling
SPRING | N/A
SUMMER | N/A

Deadlines for assistantships are listed online.

DEGREES OFFERED

• Executive Master of International Business (E.M.I.B.)

COURSES AVAILABLE

DAYS ✔ NIGHTS ✔ WEEKENDS ✔ ONLINE ✔

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

• Transcript(s)
• GMAT scores
• Resume
• Professional goal statement

FINANCIAL SUPPORT

Each student accepted into the graduate program is awarded a graduate assistantship that is renewable for a period of four years as long as there is continual and satisfactory progress toward degree completion. Assistantship duties are evenly divided between teaching and research assistance. Funding for the calendar year provides for 21 credit hours of tuition remission and a stipend of $16,000.