Arriving at MOCRA

MOCRA is located on the campus of Saint Louis University at the intersection of West Pine Blvd and Spring Ave (the streets are closed off to vehicular traffic and form a pedestrian mall on the campus). There is a clock tower 4 at this intersection. MOCRA is part of Fusz Memorial Hall on the southwest corner of the intersection. It has its own entrance 3 – look for the steeple on the corner of the building.

Parking for the reception

Guests can park for free in the Canisius lot 6 (enter from Lindell Blvd). From the parking lot, cross Lindell Blvd at Spring Ave and walk one block to MOCRA 3. Guests also can park in SLU’s Laclede garage 5 (enter from Laclede Ave) for free — just let the attendant know you are attending the MOCRA program. Street parking on the streets bordering the campus is free on Sundays.

Due to construction, access to MOCRA from Laclede Ave and Spring Ave is impeded. The easiest options (indicated on the map in green) are:

A) Walk up the short flight of steps just to the east of the construction zone, then follow the fenced-in detour route back to the Spring Ave mall. Continue to the clock tower 4 and MOCRA 3, or

B) Walk up the driveway just west of the Beracha Hall classroom building (3721 Laclede Ave), cross the parking lot, and look for signage directing you to MOCRA 3.

Two spaces for handicapped parking 5 are located in a smaller lot closer to MOCRA. To access this handicapped parking, enter the driveway adjacent to Diablitos Restaurant (3761 Laclede Ave) 1.

Look for the blue and white “MOCRA” signs on nearby lampposts. Proceed to the alley at the driveway’s end. Turn right, then left. Pass from the larger parking area into the small lot 2 behind MOCRA’s building, and park in one of the designated spaces. From here, head into campus, then turn right and follow the length of the building to MOCRA’s entrance 3.

Please note that the Rockhurst (Beracha Hall) parking lot is no longer available for visitor parking.

If you need any assistance finding your way, please don’t hesitate to contact us via phone at 314-977-7170 or e-mail at mocra@slu.edu
