Are you sharing, discussing, transmitting, or transferring information, technology, or encrypted software with a foreign national within the United States or abroad?

Are you shipping, taking, transmitting, or transferring an item outside of the United States?

Is the information, technology, or encrypted software taught in a university catalog course, or is it the result of basic or applied research that is ordinarily published and shared broadly in the scientific community?

Is the information or software within the public domain?

Is the information or software listed on the Export Administration Regulations Commerce Control List or the International Traffic in Arms Regulations U.S. Munitions List?

Are you exporting the item, information, or software with a sanctioned country or a restricted party, or do you have a reason to think that the item, information, or software will be used for a prohibited end-use?

No License Needed

Export Control Full Review Needed!
Contact: ExportControls@slu.edu