System Roles in eIBC

The eIBC system has two public user roles: Investigator and Reviewer. If you have multiple roles assigned to your account, you can switch between those roles under eProtocol in the top left corner by clicking on each role. In the top right corner next to your name, you will see the role that you are currently using.

For more information on the role(s) you have been assigned, please see role-specific training documentation.