Social Justice and Advocacy Series
Fridays, 3-6pm

Join us for series of workshops on concepts and methodologies around social justice and social change. The workshops will support the spiritual and intellectual growth of participants by developing an understanding of social justice that is inclusive to both faith-based and civic minded motivations.

FALL 2015 SESSIONS

• Conceptualizing Social Justice (Oct 30)
  ▪ Privilege & Power (Nov 13)
    o Conflict & Social Justice (Dec 4)

SPRING 2016 SESSIONS

• Political Process & Policy (Jan 15)
  ▪ Social Change Methods (Jan 29)
    o Effective Messaging & Framing(Feb 12)

To Apply go to www.slu.edu/ministry.xml.
Applications Due by September 30th.

Sponsored by the Center for Service and Community Engagement, the Department of Campus Ministry, the Faith and Justice Collaborative, and the Service Leadership Program in the John Cook School of Business