Description of Internship

The Office of Student Conduct helps students aspire to become men and women for others through an educationally focused disciplinary process that assists students in improving their decision making skills.

Internship duties may be flexible, depending on skills, areas of interest, and departmental needs. Possible projects may include:

- Assist in review and drafting of policies for the Code of Conduct.
- Assist with development of Dispute Resolution Models
- Assist in the planning of educational programming.
- Assist in development of training programs for Hearing Officers, Student Conduct Board and University Committee on Student Conduct Board Members.
- Develop promotional materials and publicity pieces for the Office of Student Conduct.
- Assist with the maintenance and tracking of office software program
- Opportunity to work with various student groups and campus departments.

Time Requirements/Compensation

Internship is approximately 10 hours/week. Hours are flexible. Because of the nature of the work, daytime and evening hours may apply. This is an unpaid position. Interested students should speak to their Internship Coordinator for information about class credit.

Knowledge, Skills, Abilities

Intern requirements include enrollment in an undergrad at Saint Louis University, verbal and written communication skills, ability to relate effectively to students and professionals, planning and organizational skills, ability to work in team-oriented environment, and computer proficiency.
