STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

At the conclusion of the academic advising meeting, students will be able to:

- Create a graduation plan for each remaining semester (if applicable)
- Articulate leadership skills
- Write personal mission statement
- List key components of professionalism
- Evaluate the personal, academic and cultural impact the study abroad experience has offered

STEPS FOR PRE-REGISTRATION:

- You will receive an email from your academic advisor during the fourth week of the semester
- You will email a completed course recommendation form, along with completed answers to this form, to your academic advisor by October 16
- Your academic advisor will review both documents and respond by the first week in November confirming your spring courses, any questions regarding your below answers, your pin and registration date
- Please submit pictures and/or an invitation to your personal blog for the study abroad portfolio/website: the portfolio will be for future study abroad students, so what to pack, where to eat, what to be cautious of, best/most challenging classes, etc. Basically, what would YOU have wanted to know prior to traveling abroad. DISCLAIMER: Please note that what you provide may be included in our study abroad book and/or our website. If you prefer for us to NOT use your feedback, please let us know

REFLECTION TOPICS

  Example: I will schedule via SLU appointments and attend a writing services appointment 1 week before and after each Theology paper due date.

  Academic Goal 1:
  Academic Goal 2:

  Personal Goal 1:
  Personal Goal 2:

- Professionalism- Please identify three qualities that exemplify professionalism and assess whether you emulate these qualities. Think of a professional you admire (faculty member, academic advisor, parent, etc.) and reflect on the characteristics that make them a professional in your opinion.
  1.
  3.
Study abroad:
- How did you prepare for the experience and did you experience any shock when first arriving?
- What tips do you have for future students studying abroad (packing list, safety tips, good classes to take, host family vs. no host family, etc.)
- What is the best thing you have eaten?
- Where have you traveled?
- What is the most fun thing you have done thus far?
- Describe an experience you have had while abroad that has impacted your view on culture/diversity/global citizenship - why did this change your viewpoint?
- What have you learned about yourself?
- How are you performing academically? Are you encountering any struggles?

Leadership
- What are the characteristics of a leader?
- What characteristics do you hold that make you a leader?
- Have you been offered or sought leadership opportunities at SLU or within any organizations (please provide specifics on what you are doing)?

Please write your personal mission statement- what do you live by? What do you want to be remembered for? Does your personal mission statement encompass both personal and professional achievements?

The Academic Advisors on the Medical Center Campus are ready to assist you throughout your experience at Saint Louis University. This is your Academic Advising syllabus, which identifies learning outcomes, documents to be brought to each meeting, discussion topics and additional information as needed. It is expected that you come prepared and ready to actively engage in discussion. Academic Advising is more than just reviewing your curriculum; your meetings with your academic advisor will educate you on how to develop tools and skills to become independent, responsible and successful citizens while you navigate through your academic experience.

REMEMBER, your Academic Advisor is here to assist you with your transition, but this is YOUR education and YOU are ultimately responsible for your own SUCCESS!
