Advanced College Credit

General Information

Saint Louis University recognizes that a student, by virtue of independent study, previous training, experience, already may possess sufficient mastery of the content of a specific course. To enable such a student to enrich or accelerate the course of study, the University provides examinations by which academic credit can be earned.

Departmental Placement Examinations

Credit for Departmental Placement Examinations is granted only to students enrolled in the University and is considered to be equivalent to credit the student would have earned had he or she successfully completed a course at Saint Louis University.

External Examinations

CEEB: SAT II Subject
CEEB: Advanced Placement (AP) Examinations
CEEB: College Level Examination Program (CLEP)
ACT: Proficiency Examination Program
(PEP) for Registered Nursing Students
International Baccalaureate

Dual Credit/Concurrent Enrollment Programs

Students may receive college credit prior to high school graduation through Dual Credit/Concurrent Enrollment programs. In addition to receiving credit toward high school graduation for selected academic courses, the student may opt to dual enroll. Credits earned in Dual Enrollment/Concurrent Enrollment programs are subject to the same policies as those of any other transfer credit.

Only some subject examinations will be accepted by the University. For specific information about applicable Advanced Placement (AP), CLEP or SAT II Examinations, within the St. Louis area, contact the Office of Undergraduate Admission at (314) 977-2500, or outside the St. Louis area at 1-800-758-3678 (1-800-SLU-FOR-U).

Plans to take SAT II and Advanced Placement (AP) Examinations should be made prior to or during the student's senior year in high school. Advanced Placement tests may be taken in May SAT II tests may be taken in November, December, January, May or June.

These examinations should be taken as early as possible in the second semester of the senior year. Scores would then be available prior to planning for the academic year. On-campus CLEP examinations are offered the third week of every month during the academic year. Information about ACT-PEP tests may be obtained from the Coordinator, Baccalaureate Admissions, School of Nursing at (314) 577-8900. ■
