

SLU Interdisciplinary Faculty Panel share their thoughts and reflections on Pope Benedict's address.

Benedict XVI in America: Focus on Catholic Higher Education

(What did he say? What might it mean?)

Monday, May 5, 12:00—2:00 pm
Knights Room, Pius Library

Panelists include:

- Dr. Ellen Burkemper, Moderator (Social Work)
- Fr. Wayne Hellmann (Theological Studies)
- Fr. John Kavanaugh (Philosophy)
- Fr. Richard Quirk (Political Science)
- Dr. Brian Robinette (Theological Studies)
- Dr. Sara van den Berg (English)
- Fr. Ted Vitali (Philosophy)

Lunch provided to those who RSVP by May 1 to VOICES@slu.edu.

Find the Pope's address at:

<http://publicaffairs.cua.edu/Releases/2008//PopeBenedictSpeech.cfm>

Sponsored by the Department of Philosophy, the Department of Theological Studies, the Department of Political Science, Ethics Across the Curriculum, the School of Social Work, and the VOICES Project.