Course description and objectives

Intermediate Chinese is, as the title indicates, an intermediate course designed for students who already have knowledge of basic Chinese learned either through taking Business Chinese Level II or through some other relevant experience. The purpose of this course is to facilitate oral practice and to allow students to communicate in real-life situations: Library, asking directions, seeing a doctor, traveling, renting apartments, post office, sports, and business jargon. The course will cover a wide range of materials, both in terms of vocabulary and grammar. Students will learn to read and write Chinese texts with minimal help and will learn to read Chinese texts without the aid of pinyin. This intermediate course will enable students to be proficient in Chinese for travel and business. Additionally, the course will integrate Chinese culture into language learning to enhance the understanding of cultural influence on the language.

Required Textbook
