General News and Announcements

Teresa Johnson sent us the following note: “Thank you very much for the beautiful plant in memory of my brother.”

Mass was celebrated in German by Fr. J. Voiss, SJ (Dept. of Theological Studies) in the chapel in Pruellage Hall on March 23. Dr. Evelyn Meyer co-organized the Mass with Fr. Voiss and Fr. Hellmann. Four of our German students participated in the Mass by reading scripture passages or prayers or helped in the celebration of the Eucharist. These students are Lyle Wilson (GR 210), David Moore, SJ (GR 310), Jackie Siess (GR 488, graduating senior), and Everett Brockaw (GR 493). Twenty people from across the university attended the Mass. There will be another German Mass, which will be celebrated by Fr. Hellmann, O.F.M., on April 20 at 8 p.m. in Pruellage Hall.

Because there will be no classes next Monday, the next issue of MCLanguage Matters will appear on April 12.

Meetings

The remaining department meeting this semester will take place on Thursday, 3:30-5:00 p.m.: April 29 and will be held in BSC 352/353.

Deadlines

LLC

Kudos

• Dr. Kara McBride has published an article, “Percepciones estudiantiles sobre las técnicas utilizadas en la enseñanza del inglés como lengua extranjera,” in Universum, 24(2), (200) 94-112.

From the Chair

Happy Passover!
Happy Easter!