Deadlines

LLC

LLC Films & Public Screenings: Please note that some films in the LLC collection now have a "No Public Screenings" label on the DVD case. Some film distributors differentiate between a DVD copy meant for in-classroom teaching and one meant for public screenings. Specifically, these distributors currently include Kino, DEFA, and FMG. The vast majority of our film distributors do not make a distinction for which films have educational public performance rights. This policy will only affect a small percentage of the LLC's film collection. Adherence to these regulations is the responsibility of the borrower.

Photo Contest: The LLC wants to display your students' study abroad and travel photos. Selected photos will be enlarged and framed at the LLC. Please encourage your students to submit up to 5 photos to llc@slu.edu. More information can be found here:
