Deadlines

LLC

The availability of Ritter Hall 331 might be disrupted the week of October 23 while new audio visual equipment is installed. While there are no scheduled classes on Monday or Tuesday due to fall break, there is a chance that work will continue through the end of the week. Contact Mr. Dan Nickolai with questions or concerns.

Kudos

• Dr. Claude Pavur, S.J., this year a visiting scholar at the Institute of Jesuit Sources, gave a talk entitled "Defining Jesuit Education" at Gonzaga University’s Ignatian Heritage Celebration on September 29.

• The French Ministry of Foreign Affairs has asked Dr. Jean-Louis Pautrot to write a book on author Pascal Quignard. The book is part of a series on contemporary French writers. It will be sold in bookstores and also available through French embassies, consulates and alliances around the globe for the purpose of cultural dissemination.

• Dr. Pautrot’s translation of Requiem by Pascal Quignard (libretto) & Thierry Lancino (composer) and of accompanying program notes will be released in the booklet of a Naxos CD on Nov 2, 2011.
