Kudos

Dr. Cassandra Hamrick was keynote speaker for the annual "Jacques Chicoineau Lecture" held at Webster University on March 25, 2012. The title of her lecture was "The Amazing 19th Century in France". Sponsored by the Saint Louis-Lyon Sister Cities Committee, the lecture series is held in celebration of the life and work of Jacques Chicoineau (1919-2004), an accomplished writer and educator whose long service in the promotion of the cultural ties between France and Saint Louis was recognized during his lifetime by the French Minister of Education, by the French Senate, and by President Giscard d'Estaing.
