General News and Announcements

Our first coffee hour of the semester will be Wednesday, Sept. 4, 3PM.

To help celebrate the 50-year anniversary of SLU’s English as a Second Language program, on Friday, October 4 there will be talks by two distinguished scholars in the fields of intercultural studies and second language acquisition. Dr. Jun Liu will present “From Global Competence to Global Citizenship” from 10:00 to 11:00, and Dr. Bill VanPatten will present “Theory and Research Informed Language Teaching: Five Principles for Communicative Language Teaching” from 3:00 to 4:00. Both presentations will be in the auditorium of the Center for Global Citizenship.

Meetings

Department meetings this semester will take place 3:30-5:00 p.m. on the following Thursdays: September 12, October 31, November 14.

LLC

Kudos

Dr. Jean-Louis Pautrot has recently published:

- two reviews of creative literature:

In addition, Dr. Pautrot presented a paper, “Les havres de Pascal Quignard”, at the Colloque International “Les Lieux de Pascal Quignard”, Université du Havre, Le Havre, 29-30 avril 2013.