General News and Announcements

Welcome to Morrissey Hall!

Meetings

LLC Departmental meetings will be held on the following Thursdays, 3:30-5:00 p.m.
October 2
November 6
December 4

LLC

Kudos

Tim Wilhelm, a French major (and LLC work-study student,) won an award in the essay contest sponsored by the United Nations: "Many Languages, One World." At the end of June, he participated in the Global Youth Forum in NYC (all expenses paid). Here is the link that provides more information: http://www.els.edu/en/ManyLanguagesOneWorld. 60 participants were selected from over 1400 submissions; the submissions came from 128 different countries. Tim is one of the 6 U.S. contestants selected.

Dr. Julia Lieberman participated in the workshop "The Shoah in Israeli Culture: Memory, and Politics," that took place April 26-27, 2014 at Brandeis University, Schusterman Center for Israel Studies, Waltham, MA.

Dr. Oscar López has published a book, Asedios a la ciudad letrada (Questioning the Lettered City). Dr López’s book was published by Editorial Universidad de Antioquia of Universidad de Antioquia, the second largest public university in Colombia founded in 1803. Dr. López gave a talk at the Universidad de Antioquia on July 23, the day the book was launched.
Courses and Changes Approved by Faculty Council

RUSS 335  Chekhov as Dramatist — New course
SPAN 440: Strangers in a Familiar Land: Displacements in Latin America — Approved to satisfy the Global Citizenship diversity requirement.