General News and Announcements

Meetings

The remaining LLC Departmental meetings this semester will be held on the following Thursdays, 3:30-5:00:

- November 6
- December 4

Kudos

Dr. Kara McBride conducted two invited workshops at the Chihuahua State University, Chihuahua, Mexico, on the occasion of the university’s week-long celebration of its 60th anniversary: “Professional writing for publication” (Oct. 20) and “Cómo planear una investigación” (How to plan a research project) (Oct. 21).

Dr. Arline Cravens presented a paper at the Rocky Mountain Modern Language Association Conference in Boise, Idaho on Friday, October 10, 2014: “Feminine Archetypes and Gender in George Sand’s Lélia and Jeanne: the ‘Other’ as an ideal or the impossible?”

Dr. Kathleen Llewellyn delivered a paper, “The Woman as Sin and as Punishment in Early Modern French Literature” at the Sixteenth-Century Studies Conference in New Orleans, LA, on October 18.
