Holocaust in Russia: A Survivor’s Story
Sponsored by the East European studies and Russian Studies programs

Guest Speaker: Mrs. Charna L. Palatnik
Presentation by Prof. Michael Palatnik (Washington University)
FRIDAY, April 3, 2009 2:00 pm
Bush Student Center, Rm. 251
Saint Louis University
“Oral History of Russian Holocaust” project

Guest speaker – Charna L. Palatnik, the Holocaust survivor and her son Mikhail Palatnik

Professor Emeritus of Russian Nelli Grosswasser
The author and manager of the Project
Students and Faculty

The BSC hall could hardly house all those who wanted to hear the live story about the Holocaust in Russia during Nazi occupation of 1941-1945
We must know this!

Students and faculty of the Russian program at SLU at the ATLAS event. At the table (left to right): Mrs. Charna Palatnik, guest speaker, Prof. Murphy, coordinator of the Russian Program, Nelli Grosswasser, Prof. Emeritus.
Russ 410 students want to hear more

Olga Skorobogataya, Zhanna Ostrovska, Darren Johnson with Charna Palatnik

Alison Reilly (U News) wants to arrange an interview with Prof. Nelli Grosswasser
Discussions and reunions

More questions to Charna Palatnik and Mikhail who translated his mother’s story in English.

The Russian faculty Dr. Blake, Dr. Murphy, and Dr. Belyaeva Standen were happy to see Prof. Nelli Grosswasser, the founder of the Russian program at SLU.