MEDIA ADVISORY

SAINT LOUIS UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW TO HOST MEDICAID ROUNDTABLE WITH LOCAL THOUGHT LEADERS

WHAT: The legislative debate over state Medicaid expansion continues as a Missouri House Committee recently rejected a Medicaid expansion plan supported by the Democrats and called for focus on a Medicaid “transformation.” This panel will feature guests on both sides of the issues facing the Missouri legislature as they work towards a decision over the expansion of coverage for the citizens of Missouri under the Affordable Care Act.

WHEN: Monday, March 4th, 2013
Noon – 1:00 p.m.

WHO: Margaret Donnelly, Health Law Practitioner-in-Residence, SLU LAW; former Director, Missouri Department of Health and Senior Services
Ron Levy, Executive in Residence, SLU College for Public Health and Social Justice; former Director, Missouri Department of Health and Senior Services
Patrick Ishmael, Policy Analyst, Show Me Foundation
Thomas Greaney, Moderator, Co-Director, Center for Health Law Studies, SLU LAW; Chester A. Myers Professor of Law

WHERE: William H. Kniep Courtroom
Morrissey Hall
3700 Lindell Blvd., St. Louis, MO 63108

CONTACT: Media are welcome to attend the event. Please contact Jessica Ciccone (lillieciccone@slu.edu) for accommodations.

###

About Saint Louis University School of Law
Saint Louis University School of Law was founded in 1843 and is the oldest law school west of the Mississippi River. The strength of the faculty, breadth of course offerings and extensive clinical and professional skills experience provide students with a well-rounded legal education. The School of Law’s rich history consists of strong connections to the community and a long tradition of public service. SLU LAW’s location in the heart of the City of St. Louis, offers students unparalleled access to leading law firms, corporations, government agencies and non-profit organizations – and a unique opportunity to see the law in action. For more information, visit http://law.slu.edu/.