

Saint Louis University
School of Public Health
Presents:

Multi-Cultural Eve

on Friday, November 20, 2009

Place: II Monastero on North campus, 3050 Olive Blvd., five blocks east of Grand and Lindell

Time: 6:00 p.m. onwards

Dress in native garb and bring food to share from your home region and a small flag, if you can get one. There will be cultural events from various nations performed by members of our school community and a potluck dinner with different cuisines from all over the world.

Please contact Prajakta Adsul for more information and to RSVP, including the number of people in your party, by Monday, November 16 at padsul@slu.edu. If you have a talent you will share, please send your name and a description of your performance. Free admission. A donation of healthy canned or boxed goods for our Operation Food Search initiative is strongly encouraged.
