Advice

I am calling to see if it would be possible to meet with you to discuss opportunities in the not-for-profit sector. This May I will be graduating from Saint Louis University with a degree in psychology. While at SLU I have been active in my sorority, which has given me the opportunity to help with fundraising, event planning, and program coordination for service events. I am the kind of person who is 100% interested in programming. Would you be willing to meet with me for 20-30 minutes to discuss your career in this field?

I am a freshman at Saint Louis University considering going into computer science. I have some experience coding and am especially interested in programming. Would you be willing to meet with me for 20-30 minutes to discuss your career in this field?
Informational Interviewing

The process of talking with professionals working in fields that you are considering for yourself.

Before

- Make an appointment with a Career Development Specialist to set goals for your info interview
- Research career field, organization, or business before asking for an informational interview
- Prepare questions about the position/field
- Create a Personal Pitch (see previous page for details)
- Call and confirm person’s job title, set a convenient time for them, and keep to it

Do you have your questions prepared? Here are some examples.

What is a typical work day like?
How and why did you choose this career?
What would you suggest I do to make myself more marketable in this career field?
What are some related career paths?
Where can I find more information and or whom do you suggest I talk to for further information?
What type of person do you look for when you need a new employee?
What advice do you have for a student like me?

During

- If possible, try to meet at the work site to get a better idea of the working environment and culture
- Dress appropriately for the location and arrive 5-10 minutes early
- Write down all information received, name of interviewee, and date of interview
- Always act professionally

After

Follow Up!

- Keep track of contact information and any other relevant details for interviewee(s)
- Send Thank-You letter ASAP to interviewee(s) - emailed or handwritten
- Review information and assess how it applies to you. Schedule an appointment with a Career Development Specialist to discuss
