PHILANTHROPY

Zeta Tau Alpha’s philanthropy week to support breast cancer awareness is September 30th - October 5th. Zeta will be hosting events all week to raise money that will be donated to organizations that help research breast cancer and its effects.

Kappa Alpha Theta’s half philanthropy week supporting Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA) is October 27th - October 30th. CASA is a volunteer organization dedicated to supporting children who are victims of abuse or neglect by making sure their best interests are upheld.

INSPIRATION

I feel blessed to be here representing our country and carrying out the research of scientists around the world... I hope you could feel the positive energy that beamed to the whole planet as we glided over.

-Laurel Clark, U.S. Astronaut
Former ADPI at UWM

ALUMNI ADVICE

“Saying “I don’t know” doesn’t make you stupid. Saying “I need help” doesn’t make you weak. Learning and working with others are key parts of your own growth and development. They’re awesome tools for shaping the person you’re trying to become.”

-Brandon Bakewell 18'
Beta Theta Pi

FSL HIGHLIGHTS

Henry Matus is a stand out member of Sigma Chi at Saint Louis University. Henry is on the event leadership team for Relay for Life, an exec member of the SLU Entrepreneurship Club, and an intern at the Chaifetz Center for Entrepreneurship. Henry works around the clock on his pet nutritional supplement start-up "Bark n Sniff LLC" and strives to improve the lives of others around him by bringing a positive attitude wherever he goes. Henry never fails to leave a lasting impression.

Malaney Papke is not only an involved and impactful member of Gamma Phi Beta, but she is also the President of Delta Sigma Pi, a professional business fraternity here on campus. Malaney is the vice president of the Dean’s Student Advisory Board for the Chaifetz School of Business and is extremely passionate about social justice. Additionally, Malaney is an exemplary student who is an MLK scholar looking to change the world for the better. Malaney is the perfect example of a student fostering a positive environment in her community.
