The Russian and East European Studies Program provides interdisciplinary study of the former Soviet Union and Central and Eastern Europe, combining language, literature, politics, history, theology, communication, and other subjects. Students earn a minor in addition to one or more departmental majors and are prepared for careers in government, business, and academic fields, as well as for graduate study in the field.

Russian & Eastern European Studies Minor

General Requirements (24 hours)

Required Courses (12 hours)
HIST 3160 History of Eastern Europe
HIST 3290 History of Russia since 1905
POLS 2530 Soviet and Post-Soviet Politics
RUSS 3050 Conversational Russian

Elective Courses (12 hours)
Nine hours related to the field chosen with the approval of the Director. These could include such courses currently offered as:

HIST 3030 Byzantine Empire
HIST 3250 World in Conflict Since 1945

Other upper division Russian courses also could be chosen as electives. Another language of the region can be substituted for Russian if comparable proficiency can be demonstrated.

Russian and Eastern Area Studies Minor Continuation Standards
All Russian and Eastern Area Studies minor courses must be completed with a grade of C or higher in order to count for the minor and for the student to continue in the minor.
