

University Withdraw and Enrollment Changes

When a student withdraws from Saint Louis University before the start of a semester or session, whether the withdrawal is voluntary, requested by the University, or for other reasons, the following regulations apply:

- 1) Student must submit the Form #9 - Petition for Complete Withdrawal. See the Withdrawing from Saint Louis University policy for additional information.
- 2) Tuition charges will be refunded in accordance with the schedule listed below.
- 3) Course fees charges will not be refunded.
- 4) Residence hall charges will be refunded in accordance with the residence contact.

If a student withdraws from Saint Louis University or drops individual courses within semester or session, please keep the following in mind:

- 1) Dropping or withdrawing from courses does not eliminate your financial obligation to Saint Louis University. Students are responsible for any charges owed at the time of dropping or withdrawing from courses.
 - a) Tuition charges will be refunded in accordance with the schedule listed below.
 - b) Course fees charges will not be refunded.
 - c) Residence hall charges will be refunded in accordance with the residence contact.
- 2) There are specific federal, state and institutional drop/withdrawal policies regarding tuition and fees, housing charges, refunds to scholarship/financial aid programs, and repayments, which result from withdrawal from enrollment. Consult the Office of Student Financial services for all particulars.
- 3) When withdrawing or dropping courses, there are two situations, which may require an immediate repayment of scholarship/financial aid funds:
 - a) If your University charges are reduced because of dropping or withdrawing from courses, and it creates a credit balance in your student account, these funds may be used to repay your scholarship/financial aid awarded programs. This will depend on the amount of your scholarship/financial aid and the date of your withdrawal.
 - b) If you withdraw completely from Saint Louis University, you are no longer eligible to receive any scholarship/financial aid payments from that date forward. Federal Work-Study money earned before withdrawal will be paid. Students may not work on Federal Work-Study after withdrawing from the University.
- 4) Information regarding the federal, state and institution regulations for calculating scholarship/financial aid refunds and repayments and the order of programs to which we restore aid is available from the Office of Student Financial Services website at <http://www.slu.edu/student-financial-services/withdrawal-and-enrollment-changes>

- 5) Students receiving a Saint Louis University funded merit-based Scholarship program must request a Scholarship Deferment before withdrawal from the University. Failure to obtain an approved Scholarship Deferment before withdrawing from the University terminates the student's renewal scholarship eligibility.
