Position Abstract
As an important leadership role within the Learning Community Program, the main objective of the Learning Community Peer Mentor (LC Mentor) leadership position is to develop and maintain meaningful mentoring relationships with students in his or her individual learning community. In addition, LC Mentors play a key role in the connection of learning community students to academic and service opportunities within their residential communities and the overall Saint Louis University community. In collaboration with the Resident Advisors (RAs) and Residence Hall Coordinators (RHCs) for their area, the LC Mentor helps to create a residential community with a focus on learning and holistic student development. The LC Mentor is expected to support the work of the Residence Hall staff regarding enforcement of policy, community building initiatives, and implementation of the residential curriculum when needed.

The successful student leader must have a passion for working with a diverse student population, be committed to student learning and development, be committed to diversity and social justice, possess strong critical thinking and problem solving skills, demonstrate initiative, communicate effectively, have a positive attitude, have developed interpersonal human relations skills, and have an ability to plan and organize. In addition, the student leader should work towards an awareness of self and others to better meet the needs of students in which they are serving. The student leader will connect and integrate the servant leadership framework into their First-Year Experience leadership position.

Position Responsibilities
Peer Mentor
