LOYOLA SCHOLARSHIP

The Madrid Campus offers merit based scholarships to entering graduate students who demonstrate exceptional accomplishment, scholastic achievement, and intellectual promise. To receive a Loyola Scholarship, graduates students must also meet the following criteria:

- he/she must have met the established requirements for admission to Saint Louis University - Madrid Campus and must have been admitted to the Madrid Campus Spanish or English graduate programs and
- he/she has not been awarded a graduate degree from any college or university

Award Value: The Loyola Scholarship has a value of 150 € per credit at Saint Louis University – Madrid Campus and has a maximum of 4,500 € to complete the program. It only applies to Fall and Spring Semesters of the Academic Year.

Eligibility and Duration: The Loyola Scholarship does not require a separate scholarship application, as the application for Graduate Admission submitted by the priority deadline qualifies applicants automatically for consideration. The scholarship is automatically renewed but is contingent upon the student maintaining a 3.3 cumulative grade point average (GPA). If a Loyola Scholarship recipient’s cumulative GPA falls below the required 3.3, as reviewed at the end of each Semester, the student may lose the scholarship.

Study Abroad and Transfer: The Loyola Scholarship only applies on the Madrid Campus

Combination with other forms of Financial Aid: The Loyola Scholarship can be combined with any other scholarship up to, but not exceeding, the cost of tuition for a given semester. It may also be combined with need-based financial assistance and/or outside funding.
