Graduate Assistant, University Honors Program

The Saint Louis University Honors Program is currently accepting applications for one Graduate Assistantship (GA) position for the 2022-2023 academic year. Please review the position details and qualifications outlined below.

JOB DESCRIPTION

Position Summary

In collaboration with University Honors Program staff, this position assists with the development, planning, and implementation of special projects and events within the Honors Program. This includes experiential learning initiatives, admission events, and other curricular/cocurricular programming and services for honors students. The role requires a significant amount of personal initiative to develop and complete projects that contribute to the operational efficiency of the Honors Program. The ideal candidate will have prior knowledge of honors education and bring a creative spirit to the position that will aid in developing new projects that enhance the honors student experience.

Appointment Details

This is a nine-month appointment, beginning mid-August 2022 and ending mid-May 2023. During that time, the GA works 20 hours per week during normal business hours while school is in session (holidays and breaks excluded). The position offers tuition remission for 18 total credit hours (9 in each term), as well as a monthly stipend and health benefits (fall and spring). This is a one-year assistantship, with the possibility for renewal for one additional year.

PRIMARY DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Work with the Director and Assistant Director of the Honors Program to establish, implement, and evaluate desired outcomes and performance objectives. Work in collaboration to achieve the mission and goals of the Honors Program.
2. Assist in the delivery and assessment of Honors Program academic experiences, including the International Partnership Program and the Honors Study Abroad course.
3. Represent the Honors Program during Fall Welcome events, University recruitment events, and other events hosted by the Honors Program.
4. Assist with the planning and implementation of the annual Senior Legacy Symposium.
5. As appropriate, attend meetings, workshops, trainings, and University events for personal and professional development.
6. Perform other duties, as assigned.

EXPECTED KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, ABILITIES AND PERSONAL CHARACTERISTICS

- Effective organizational skills and the ability to manage multiple projects simultaneously
- Effective written and oral communication skills, as well as presentation skills
- Effective interpersonal skills and the ability to show empathy and work with students
- Awareness of campus resources and opportunities for student support and development
- Ability to interact in a professional manner with faculty, staff, students, and other constituents
- Strong personal initiative with the ability to work effectively as part of a team

January 5, 2022

- Familiarity with Banner Self-Service or similar educational systems
- Familiarity with Canvas and/or other teaching technologies
- Proficiency with Microsoft Office Suite (Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Outlook)
- Proficiency with Google Workspace (Drive, Docs, Forms, Sheets, Slides, Sites)
