This student handbook is an introduction to your time at INTO SLU and a guide to policies and procedures followed by INTO SLU. This handbook is in addition to Saint Louis University’s policies in the Academic Catalog and the Student Handbook.

The COVID-19 pandemic has resulted in changes across several areas of Saint Louis University. Guidelines are in place for the entire University are designed to protect students, faculty, and staff. If you have questions or concerns, first visit SLU’s COVID-19 resources and FAQ pages: https://www.slu.edu/health-advisory/. If you still have questions or concerns, please email them to pandemic@slu.edu.
COURSE LEVELS AND PROGRESSION

The English as a Second Language Program offers a range of classes to accommodate your level of English language proficiency. The faculty determine your entry level based on the language test scores you submit when you apply and the placement tests you take when you arrive at Saint Louis University. The length of time that you spend at each level depends on the amount of time it takes for you to become proficient, but if you engage fully with the learning process, you can expect to move up one level each semester.

Academic English

Academic English (AE) includes four levels of instruction for undergraduates and five levels of instruction for graduate students. The program will guide your study of the English language and prepare you to be successful in courses in degree-seeking programs. The language, academic, and content goals in the AE Program will familiarize you with the expectations of and cultural information needed to study at Saint Louis University.

In each level, you will study reading & vocabulary, writing & grammar, and listening & speaking. Students in the intermediate levels will also take English through Service and content classes. English through Service takes you out of the classroom to develop your language through providing service to the St. Louis community. Content classes deal with topics such as American history and culture, contemporary issues, and intercultural communication. Such courses encourage you to use the language and skills you are learning in academic contexts. Expect to attend classes 15-16 hours each week and to do homework for additional 15-16 hours each week.

Progression Requirements for Academic English

To remain in good academic standing and progress to the next level in Academic English, you must demonstrate the ability to complete assignments satisfactorily in all courses, to meet the outcomes listed in each course syllabus, and to attend classes regularly.

The requirements for progression are:

- Overall GPA of 2.5
- Grades of C or better in each course (no C-/D/W/I/S/U/P/NP grades)
- 75% attendance rate in each course

If you have questions about your Academic English classes, you should speak with your instructors, your academic advisor, or the Academic English Coordinator, Mr. Matt Ryan.

Pathway Program

Pathway programs prepare students to enter a degree program at Saint Louis University. These programs allow students to begin earning credits toward a degree while building their English proficiency. Upon successfully completing a Pathway program and meeting progression requirements, students may enter the next semester of degree study at Saint Louis University. This transition from a Pathway to a University degree program is called matriculation. If you have questions about your Pathway classes, you should speak with your instructors, your Academic Advisor, or Dr. Lisieux Huelman, the Associate Director for Pathway Programs.

Undergraduate Pathway Program Curriculum

Undergraduate Pathway students take 15-16 credits each semester. This means students are expected to spend 45-48 hours per week on coursework (15-16 hours in class and 30-32 hours outside of class). In addition to at least two English courses, students will take University courses that are counted in their degree plans. All courses will count toward GPA unless otherwise noted. University Core Courses include approved courses in Fine and Performing Arts, Political Science, American Studies, or Women and Gender Studies. Major courses are determined by the Associate Director for Pathway Programs in collaboration with degree programs.

Standard Pathway (UPW I)

PROGRAM POLICIES AND GUIDELINES FOR UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS PROGRAM POLICIES AND GUIDELINES FOR UNDERGRADUATES

Academic Integrity

Introduction

Saint Louis University is a community of learning that is built on honesty and trust among administrators, faculty, staff, and students. Acts of academic misconduct violate this trust and the ethical principles of Christianity, the Catholic Church, and the Society of Jesus, which are fundamental to the University’s mission. The prevailing ethical principles and practices of American higher education may differ from those of the native cultures of INTO SLU students, and as such, the INTO SLU policy on academic integrity must allow for this cultural learning curve. To achieve that end, this policy emphasizes INTO SLU’s responsibility for educating the student population about these differences but also holds students accountable for knowingly violating the policy.

The Responsibilities of Stakeholders

To foster an academic environment in which integrity is paramount, INTO SLU relies on the commitment of all individuals in the INTO SLU community. Every member of the community is expected to model high standards of academic integrity and to report any violation of the academic integrity policy. Additionally, administrators are expected to provide training to instructors that establishes clear expectations about the standards of academic integrity and to manage the adjudication process; instructors are expected to educate students about the standards of academic integrity and to design assignments that minimize the possibility of academic misconduct; and students are expected to read and understand the academic integrity policy and to adhere to this policy when completing course assignments.

The Policy

Students are expected to be honest in their academic work. The University reserves the right to penalize any student whose academic conduct is, in its judgment, detrimental to the University. Such conduct shall include cases of plagiarism, collusion, cheating, giving or receiving or offering or soliciting information in examinations, or the use of previously prepared material in examinations or quizzes. It is the responsibility of any student who observes such dishonest conduct to call it to the attention of a faculty member or administrator. Violations should be reported to the course instructor, who will investigate and adjudicate them according to the INTO SLU Policy on Academic Integrity. If the charges are found to be true, the student may be liable for academic or disciplinary probation, suspension, or expulsion by the University.

Recommendations of sanctions to be imposed will be made to the Academic Director of INTO SLU. Possible sanctions for a violation of academic integrity include, but are not limited to: assignment of a failing grade for the assignment and/or course, disciplinary probation, suspension, and/or dismissal from the University. While grades are very important in the current educational system and the University is a highly competitive environment, achieving high grades through dishonest means is not worth the risk to one’s overall grade, reputation, and career.
Types of Academic Misconduct

Types of academic misconduct include, but are not limited to, the following acts. Cheating involves the use of unauthorized or unethical assistance to gain an unfair advantage over other students. Falsification involves misrepresentations of fact for academic gain. Plagiarism involves the representation of someone else's thoughts or words as if they were one's own, either intentionally or unintentionally. Sabotage involves interfering with or seeking to prevent the academic pursuits of others. Collusion involves collaboration with another person or persons for the purpose of engaging in, aiding, or abetting acts of academic misconduct.

Classes of Violations

Academic integrity violations can be classified as a Minor Violation or a Major Violation. Minor Violations may include, but are not limited to, when a student engages in an act of academic misconduct on an assignment of minimal weight to the overall grade of the course. Major Violations may include, but are not limited to, when a student engages in an act of academic misconduct on an assignment of considerable weight to the overall grade of the course, or when a student has committed two prior minor violations.

Saint Louis University has specific rules about academic integrity. You can read about those rules here: https://www.slu.edu/academics/graduate/university-wide_academic_integrity_policy_final_6-26-15.pdf

Academic Standing

As a student in an INTO SLU program, you are expected to make good progress towards your major area of study by remaining in good standing. See Appendix A for a list of progression requirements by program, which identify the specific requirements to be in good standing.

Probation

If you fail to meet the requirements for academic good standing (for example, falling below the minimum GPA, failing to meet progression criteria or minimal course grade requirements) or if you take an unauthorized leave of absence or have excessive unapproved absences, you will be placed on academic probation.

Dismissal

If you are on probation for two semesters and do not meet the terms of your probation at the end of your third semester, you may be dismissed.

Dismissal Appeals

You may appeal the decision the first time you are dismissed in our program. You will need to submit the form emailed to you by the Academic Director, and write a letter in support of your case.

You may only appeal the first dismissal; if you do not return to good standing in the semester after dismissal, you will be dismissed and will not be eligible to appeal.
Classroom Expectations

Each class you take at Saint Louis University may include specific behavior and conduct policies on the syllabus. You are also required to meet the following expectations in all classes:

- Attend all class meetings
- Arrive to class on time
- Complete your homework on time and bring it with you to class
- Participate in class
- Bring the necessary materials to class: textbooks, pencils, pens, notebooks
- Silence and store away your phone or other electronic devices unless you are asked to use them in class

Since meeting the classroom expectations of the University is part of your learning process, your grade may be affected if you do not follow these guidelines.

Code of Conduct

Saint Louis University students are required to follow the University’s Code of Conduct, found in the Student Handbook. If you believe someone is not following the Code of Conduct, you can speak with your instructors, your faculty mentor, or the INTO SLU Assistant Director for Student Experience, Andrea Zhou. In an emergency, call Campus Security at 314-977-3000.

Vacation Term

Academic English students are not eligible for a summer vacation term during the first three consecutive semesters in the Academic English Program. A vacation term is limited to the summer semester. Eligibility for a summer vacation term does not guarantee approval.

Pathway Program students are not eligible for a vacation term during the first two (2) consecutive semesters of Pathway study (excluding summer).

Attendance

Students are required to attend 75% or more of all class meetings during the semester to be in good standing at INTO Saint Louis University. This means you can miss no more than 25% of class sessions. If you are more than 30 minutes late to class or if you leave class for more than 30 minutes, you are counted absent for the full period. Check with each of your instructors for information specific to your classes. If you miss more than 25% of class sessions for any reason you will be on academic probation next semester.

You should attend all class sessions to get the most educational benefit from your courses. If you are late or absent, you miss graded assignments and important instruction. As a result, being late or absent from any class period negatively impacts your grade. Absence or lateness for any reason does not excuse you from assigned work. In all cases, speak with your instructor about your absence. If your instructor determines that your absence is excused, you will have the chance to make up your work for full credit. If your absence is unexcused, there may be penalties on your missed work. The standard deadline for make-up work is two weeks after the original assignment is due.
Changing Pathway Major

If you want to change your Pathway, or, if you aren’t sure you’re in the right major, contact your academic advisor, Hailey Choi. She will talk to you about your academic interests and help you to schedule a meeting with the Associate Director for Pathway Programs, Dr. Lisieux Huelman.

Placement and Progression Measures

Placement Tests
All students take the Saint Louis University Writing Exam (SLUWE) before beginning Academic English or Pathway classes. Students may submit a standardized test score (TOEFL, IELTS, Duolingo) before arrival, or they will take the Oxford Online Placement Test (OOPT) during orientation to complete the initial placement and registration process. Students who dispute their initial placement may contact their program coordinator before the end of the add/drop period to initiate a review of their placement decision.

The Undergraduate Saint Louis University Writing Exam (SLUWE)
The SLUWE is a language skills assessment that determines your readiness for Saint Louis University academic coursework. The SLUWE tests the skill areas of writing ability, reading comprehension, and grammatical accuracy and sophistication.

Oxford Online Placement Test (OOPT)
The OOPT is a test of your general English language proficiency. The OOPT tests grammar knowledge and listening skills.

Grades and Grade Point Average
You must remain in good academic standing in order to progress to the next level of study. Students in good standing have a grade point average (GPA) of 2.5 or higher.

Many Pathway programs require a minimum GPA that is higher than 2.5. You should be familiar with your program’s progression requirements. It is a good idea to know your current GPA and speak with your instructors, your faculty mentor, the Associate Director for Pathway Programs and the Assistant Director of Student Experience if you have any questions about your progress in your classes.

Grade Appeals
Students may appeal course grades by completing the grade appeal process with the Academic English Coordinator, Mr. Matt Ryan, or the Associate Director for Pathway Programs, Dr. Lisieux Huelman.

Time to Degree
Many students find it difficult to complete all of the requirements for an undergraduate degree in just four (4) years of study attending two (2) semesters per academic year. Typically, students will need to enroll in one (1) or more summer semesters to stay on track to graduate in four (4) years.
Academic Support for Undergraduate Students

Advising
While you are a student in the INTO SLU programs, you have many advisors who are committed to your success in and out of the classroom. These advisors include your academic advisor, Hailey Choi, and the Assistant Director for Student Experience, Andrea Zhou. You can meet with your advisor any time you have questions or concerns. If your advisor requests a meeting with you, you are required to attend.

Our advising model is designed with the following outcomes in mind:

1. Prepare students with curricular and co-curricular academic support
2. Teach students how to access, utilize, and connect with resources across campus through a 1-credit hour core course (CORE 1500: Cura Personalis 1)
3. Serve students academically with academic advising and faculty support
4. Assist in student learning through targeted support outside of the classroom

The English Language Center
The English Language Center (ELC) provides specialized support for international students at all levels. In one-on-one consultations and in group workshops, ELC consultants provide feedback and offer strategies to improve your writing at every stage, from coming up with ideas for your paper, to organizing a draft, to polishing the final document. The ELC also offers assistance in testing strategies, multi-media projects, grammatical accuracy, research skills, and pronunciation.

During ELC consultations, you will work with consultants to develop strategies to become a more capable and proficient English language learner. Consultants can help you prioritize your language needs and assess your strengths and weaknesses.

ELC consultants will work with you to improve grammatical accuracy and to learn grammatical rules, skills, and concepts, but will not edit your papers. Consultants will help identify error patterns in writing and develop strategies to correct and control these errors, but will never “fix” or “correct” a paper in ways that raise it to a level of proficiency and fluency beyond what you can reasonably achieve.

ELC consultants are SLU faculty members, graduate students, and undergraduate students who have been trained to assist students whose native language is not English and to foster each writer’s sense of control over the writing process. We take pride in our roles as interpreters and ambassadors of academic and American culture, and we are dedicated to helping you become more proficient writers.

You may make an appointment with the ELC at any point in the writing process, but the help will be most effective if you schedule your appointment with enough time to revise your work before the assignment is due. During standard semesters, use ‘EAB Navigate – Students’ (accessed through https://auth.slu.edu/app/UserHome) to make an ELC appointment. The ELC accepts walk-ins when consultants are available, but appointments are strongly encouraged as ELC services are in high demand. Students may make a maximum of one appointment per day and two appointments per week.
The ESL Program also offers Academic Support Workshops (ASWs) that help students develop the self-regulated learning skills necessary for reaching academic goals and maintaining a healthy lifestyle during your college career. Past topics have included managing your time, creating and updating job portfolios, staying motivated, maintaining your mental and physical health, and using university tutoring services.

Course Evaluation

You can evaluate your classes and instructors at the end of each semester. These evaluations are very important to improve classes and the quality of instruction. Instructors will give you directions for submitting course evaluations. All evaluations are anonymous and are not given to instructors until after course grades have been submitted. Your evaluation remarks cannot hurt or help your class grade.

Being an International Student

Attending classes, engaging with teachers and fellow students, completing all your assignments will all contribute to your success, but you will also gain much in terms of language and social competence by observing and engaging with life around you. There is a lot to learn and at times some of the cultural differences may seem very strange, but you will benefit.

There is a lot of information for international students studying at SLU available in the International Student Handbook online at https://www.slu.edu/international-services/pdfs/international-student-handbook-english.pdf.

Filing a Complaint

Students who have a grievance against an instructor or academic administrator may submit a complaint following the process below.

I. A discussion will occur between student and instructor/administrator
   a. If resolved, the instructor/administrator should record the complaint by sending the student an email summarizing the resolution.
   b. If not resolved, proceed to II.

II. The student will complete\(^1\) the appropriate complaint form (course or assignment grade appeals use the Grade Appeal Form; all other complaints use the Formal Complaint Form) and submit it to his or her Program Coordinator as close in time to the incident as possible.

\(^1\) The student may receive help completing the form if needed or requested, and should note such help on the form.
III. A discussion will occur between student,\(^2\) instructor/administrator, and Program Coordinator.\(^3\)
   a. The Program Coordinator will provide a copy of the written complaint and this process to the student.
   b. The Program Coordinator will take statements from both the student and instructor/administrator.
   c. The Program Coordinator will decide if the student’s complaint has merit based on the evidence and statements provided.
      i. If the complaint has no merit, the complaint will be dismissed and the student notified by email.
         1. The student may appeal the dismissal decision to the Academic Director. The Program Coordinator will forward all evidence and a written summary of the situation to date.
            a. If the complaint has merit, proceed to III.c.ii.
            b. If the complaint has no merit, the complaint will be dismissed and the student notified by email.
      ii. If the complaint has merit and is resolved during the discussion, the Program Coordinator will record the complaint by sending the student and instructor an email summarizing the resolution AND by noting the resolution on the submitted complaint form, which is filed in the ESL Program.\(^4\)
      iii. If the complaint has merit and is not resolved during the discussion, a formal hearing shall be scheduled. The Program Coordinator will forward all evidence and a written summary of the situation to date to the committee, who will convene the hearing within two business days.

IV. A hearing will occur. The committee conducting the hearing shall be comprised of two faculty members and the Program Coordinator not overseeing the steps in III.\(^5\)
   a. The Program Coordinator participating in the hearing will communicate with the student as appropriate leading up to the hearing.
   b. The committee will take statements from the student, instructor/administrator, and Program Coordinator.
   c. The committee will deliberate and generate a written report with a recommendation and submit the report and all documentation to the Academic Director within two business days.

\(^2\) The student may receive help in any meeting or hearing by bringing one representative to act as advocate; such help should be noted in the written record of the complaint.
\(^3\) Another academic administrator will be appointed to fill this role if the complaint is against the student’s own Program Coordinator.

PROGRAM POLICIES AND GUIDELINES FOR GRADUATE STUDENTS
Program Policies and Guidelines for Graduate Students

Academic Integrity

Introduction

Saint Louis University is a community of learning that is built on honesty and trust among administrators, faculty, staff, and students. Acts of academic misconduct violate this trust and the ethical principles of Christianity, the Catholic Church, and the Society of Jesus, which are fundamental to the University’s mission. The prevailing ethical principles and practices of American higher education may differ from those of the native cultures of INTO SLU students, and as such, the INTO SLU policy on academic integrity must allow for this cultural learning curve. To achieve that end, this policy emphasizes INTO SLU’s responsibility for educating the student population about these differences but also holds students accountable for knowingly violating the policy.

The Responsibilities of Stakeholders

To foster an academic environment in which integrity is paramount, INTO SLU relies on the commitment of all individuals in the INTO SLU community. Every member of the community is expected to model high standards of academic integrity and to report any violation of the academic integrity policy. Additionally, administrators are expected to provide training to instructors that establishes clear expectations about the standards of academic integrity and to manage the adjudication process; instructors are expected to educate students about the standards of academic integrity and to design assignments that minimize the possibility of academic misconduct; and students are expected to read and understand the academic integrity policy and to adhere to this policy when completing course assignments.

The Policy

Students are expected to be honest in their academic work. The University reserves the right to penalize any student whose academic conduct is, in its judgment, detrimental to the University. Such conduct shall include cases of plagiarism, collusion, cheating, giving or receiving or offering or soliciting information in examinations, or the use of previously prepared material in examinations or quizzes. It is the responsibility of any student who observes such dishonest conduct to call it to the attention of a faculty member or administrator. Violations should be reported to the course instructor, who will investigate and adjudicate them according to the INTO SLU Policy on Academic Integrity. If the charges are found to be true, the student may be liable for academic or disciplinary probation, suspension, or expulsion by the University.

Recommendations of sanctions to be imposed will be made to the Academic Director of INTO SLU. Possible sanctions for a violation of academic integrity include, but are not limited to: assignment of a failing grade for the assignment and/or course, disciplinary probation, suspension, and/or dismissal from the University. While grades are very important in the current educational system and the University is a highly competitive environment, achieving high grades through dishonest means is not worth the risk to one’s overall grade, reputation, and career.
Types of Academic Misconduct

Types of academic misconduct include, but are not limited to, the following acts. Cheating involves the use of unauthorized or unethical assistance to gain an unfair advantage over other students. Falsification involves misrepresentations of fact for academic gain. Plagiarism involves the representation of someone else's thoughts or words as if they were one's own, either intentionally or unintentionally. Sabotage involves interfering with or seeking to prevent the academic pursuits of others. Collusion involves collaboration with another person or persons for the purpose of engaging in, aiding, or abetting acts of academic misconduct.

Classes of Violations

Academic integrity violations can be classified as a Minor Violation or a Major Violation. Minor Violations may include, but are not limited to, when a student engages in an act of academic misconduct on an assignment of minimal weight to the overall grade of the course. Major Violations may include, but are not limited to, when a student engages in an act of academic misconduct on an assignment of considerable weight to the overall grade of the course, or when a student has committed two prior minor violations.

Saint Louis University has specific rules about academic integrity. You can read about those rules here: https://www.slu.edu/academics/graduate/university-wide_academic_integrity_policy_final_6-26-15.pdf

Classroom Expectations

Each class you take at Saint Louis University may include specific behavior and conduct policies on the syllabus. You are also required to meet the following expectations in all classes:

- Attend all class meetings
- Arrive to class on time
- Complete your homework on time and bring it with you to class
- Participate in class
- Bring the necessary materials to class: textbooks, pencils, pens, notebooks
- Silence and store away your phone or other electronic devices unless you are asked to use them in class

Since meeting the classroom expectations of the University is part of your learning process, your grade may be affected if you do not follow these guidelines.

Code of Conduct

Saint Louis University students are required to follow the University’s Code of Conduct, found in the Student Handbook. If you believe someone is not following the Code of Conduct, you can speak with your instructors, your faculty mentors, or the INTO SLU Assistant Director of Student Experience. In an emergency, call Campus Security at 314-977-3000.
ADVISING

While you are a student in the INTO SLU programs, you have many advisors who are committed to your success in and out of the classroom. These advisors include your academic advisor, Hailey Choi, and the Student Experience team. You can meet with your advisors any time you have questions or concerns. If one of your advisors requests a meeting with you, you are required to attend. Your INTO SLU academic advisor can connect you with your graduate program.

PLACEMENT AND PROGRESS MEASURES

Placement
All students take the Saint Louis University Writing Exam (SLUWE) before beginning Academic English or Pathway classes. Students may submit a standardized test score (TOEFL, IELTS, Duolingo) before arrival, or they will take the Oxford Online Placement Test (OOPT) during orientation to complete the initial placement and registration process. Students who dispute their initial placement may contact their program coordinator before the end of the add/drop period to initiate a review of their placement decision.

Oxford Online Placement Test (OOPT)
The OOPT is a test of your general English language proficiency. The OOPT tests grammar knowledge and listening skills.

The Graduate Saint Louis University Writing Exam (Grad SLUWE)
The Grad SLUWE is a language skills assessment that determines your readiness for Saint Louis University graduate-level academic coursework. The Grad SLUWE tests the skill areas of writing ability, reading comprehension, grammatical accuracy and sophistication, and documentation in either APA style. A citation guide will be provided during the exam.

Grades and Grade Point Average
You must remain in good academic standing in order to progress. Students in good standing have a grade point average (GPA) of 2.5 or higher, depending on your program of study.

Many Graduate Pathway programs require a minimum GPA that is higher than 2.5 and a grade of B or better in all courses related to your major. You should be familiar with your program’s progression requirements. It is a good idea to know your current GPA and speak with your instructors, your faculty mentor, the Associate Director for Pathway Programs and the Assistant Director of Student Experience if you have any questions about your progress in your classes.

Grade Appeals
Students may appeal AEP and EAP course grades by completing the grade appeal process with the Academic English Coordinator, Mr. Matt Ryan, or the Associate Director for Pathway Programs, Dr. Lisieux Huelman.
Probation

As a student in the INTO SLU program, you are expected to make good progress towards your major area of study. If you fail to meet the requirements for academic good standing (for example, falling below the minimum GPA, failing to meet progression criteria or minimal course grade requirements) or if you take an unauthorized leave of absence or have excessive unapproved absences, you will be placed on academic probation. Probation is not guaranteed for Graduate Pathway students; your receiving program will determine eligibility on a case-by-case basis. The ESL program will work with your receiving program to determine the terms of your probation if you are eligible.

Dismissal

Failure to Make Significant Progress
If you are on probation for three consecutive semesters and do not return to good standing at the end of your third semester, you will be dismissed.

Appeal Process
You can appeal your dismissal ONLY if the terms of your original probation allow it. You will need to submit the form emailed to you by the Academic Director and write a letter in support of your case.

You may only appeal the first dismissal; if you do not clear probation in the semester after dismissal, you will be dismissed and will not be eligible to appeal.

Time to Degree
Credit and degree requirements vary by program. If you would like to discuss your time to degree, please consult with the INTO SLU Academic Advisor or the Associate Director for Pathway Programs.

ACADEMIC SUPPORT FOR GRADUATE STUDENTS

The English Language Center

The English Language Center (ELC) provides specialized support for international students at all levels. In one-on-one consultations and in group workshops, ELC consultants provide feedback and offer strategies to improve your writing at every stage, from coming up with ideas for your paper, to organizing a draft, to polishing the final document. The ELC also offers assistance in testing strategies, multi-media projects, grammatical accuracy, research skills, and pronunciation.

During ELC consultations, you will work with consultants to develop strategies to become a more capable and proficient English language learner. Consultants can help you prioritize your language needs and assess your strengths and weaknesses.

ELC consultants will work with you to improve grammatical accuracy and to learn grammatical rules, skills, and concepts, but will not edit your papers. Consultants will help identify error patterns in writing and develop strategies to correct and control these errors, but will never “fix” or “correct” a paper in ways that raise it to a level of proficiency and fluency beyond what you can reasonably achieve.
ELC consultants are SLU faculty members, graduate students, and undergraduate students who have been trained to assist students whose native language is not English and to foster each writer’s sense of control over the writing process. We take pride in our roles as interpreters and ambassadors of academic and American culture, and we are dedicated to helping you become more proficient writers.

You may make an appointment with the ELC at any point in the writing process, but the help will be most effective if you schedule your appointment with enough time to revise your work before the assignment is due. During standard semesters, use ‘EAB Navigate – Students’ (accessed through https://auth.slu.edu/app/UserHome) to make an ELC appointment. The ELC accepts walk-ins when consultants are available, but appointments are strongly encouraged as ELC services are in high demand. Students may make a maximum of one appointment per day and three appointments per week.

The ESL Program also offers Academic Support Workshops (ASWs) that help students develop the self-regulated learning skills necessary for reaching academic goals and maintaining a healthy lifestyle during your college career. Past topics have included managing your time, creating and updating job portfolios, staying motivated, maintaining your mental and physical health, and using university tutoring services.

Graduate Pathway students are encouraged to visit University Writing Services: http://www.slu.edu/life-at-slu/student-success-center/academic-support/university-writing-services/index.php.

Course Evaluation
You have the opportunity to evaluate your classes and instructors at the end of each semester. These evaluations are very important to improve classes and the quality of instruction. Instructors will give you directions for submitting course evaluations. All evaluations are anonymous and are not given to instructors until after course grades have been submitted. Your evaluation remarks cannot hurt or help your class grade.

Being an International Graduate Student
Attending classes, engaging with teachers and fellow students, completing all your assignments will all contribute to your success, but you will also gain much in terms of language and social competence by observing and engaging with life around you. There is a lot to learn and at times some of the cultural differences may seem very strange, but you will benefit.

There is a lot of information for international students studying at SLU available in the International Student Handbook online at https://www.slu.edu/international-services/pdfs/international-student-handbook-english.pdf.

Graduate Student Handbooks
Many graduate programs also maintain a Graduate Student Handbook for their students. It is important that you become familiar with your program’s handbook. Please refer to your program’s home page or your program contact person to find your program’s handbook.
Graduate Student Association (GSA)
In addition to the resources offered by INTO SLU, you are also represented by the Graduate Student Association (GSA). According to their mission, “GSA sponsors the annual Graduate Student Research Symposium which showcases graduate student research, in both paper and poster formats. Graduate students may also apply for GSA awards for conference presentation and attendance, publication assistance, as well as summer research support towards thesis, dissertation, and exam preparation.” You can find more information about GSA and its policies on their website: http://gsa.slu.edu.

Filing a Complaint
Students who have a grievance against an instructor or academic administrator may submit a complaint following the process below.

I. A discussion will occur between student and instructor/administrator
   a. If resolved, the instructor/administrator should record the complaint by sending the student an email summarizing the resolution.
   b. If not resolved, proceed to II.

II. The student will complete\(^6\) the appropriate complaint form (course or assignment grade appeals use the Grade Appeal Form; all other complaints use the Formal Complaint Form) and submit it to his or her Program Coordinator as close in time to the incident as possible.

III. A discussion will occur between student,\(^7\) instructor/administrator, and Program Coordinator.\(^8\)
   a. The Program Coordinator will provide a copy of the written complaint and this process to the student.
   b. The Program Coordinator will take statements from both the student and instructor/administrator.
   c. The Program Coordinator will decide if the student’s complaint has merit based on the evidence and statements provided.
      i. If the complaint has no merit, the complaint will be dismissed and the student notified by email.
         1. The student may appeal the dismissal decision to the Academic Director. The Program Coordinator will forward all evidence and a written summary of the situation to date.
            a. If the complaint has merit, proceed to III.c.ii.
            b. If the complaint has no merit, the complaint will be dismissed and the student notified by email.

\(^6\) The student may receive help completing the form if needed or requested, and should note such help on the form.

\(^7\) The student may receive help in any meeting or hearing by bringing one representative to act as advocate; such help should be noted in the written record of the complaint.

\(^8\) Another academic administrator will be appointed to fill this role if the complaint is against the student’s own Program Coordinator.
ii. If the complaint has merit and is resolved during the discussion, the Program Coordinator will record the complaint by sending the student and instructor an email summarizing the resolution AND by noting the resolution on the submitted complaint form, which is filed in the ESL Program.

iii. If the complaint has merit and is not resolved during the discussion, a formal hearing shall be scheduled. The Program Coordinator will forward all evidence and a written summary of the situation to date to the committee, who will convene the hearing within two business days.

IV. A hearing will occur. The committee conducting the hearing shall be comprised of two faculty members and the Program Coordinator not overseeing the steps in III.

a. The Program Coordinator participating in the hearing will communicate with the student as appropriate leading up to the hearing.

b. The committee will take statements from the student, instructor/administrator, and Program Coordinator.

c. The committee will deliberate and generate a written report with a recommendation and submit the report and all documentation to the Academic Director within two business days.

d. The Academic Director makes a final decision based on the report and communicates the decision to the student via email within four days. The Academic Director will file a letter summarizing the resolution and all supporting documentation with the ESL Program as in III.c.ii.

V. Appeals of the Academic Director’s decisions may be made to the Office of the Provost.
