The following books are required reading for all Saint Louis University Educational Administration doctoral students in the Department of Educational Leadership.

The following books are suggested reading identified by Saint Louis University Department of Educational Leadership faculty. These books are not required reading.

