SLU-APPROVED SEMESTER STUDY ABROAD PROGRAMS

SLU-MADRID COST:

Tuition and Fees: SLU tuition, plus $350 study abroad fee, plus 225 euros confirmation deposit, plus 100 euros for the cafeteria plan. SLU St. Louis students studying in Madrid will receive a one-time Madrid study abroad grant of $3,000. No separate application is necessary. Students who complete the application process and provide all required items will be eligible for the one-time grant.

While there is no housing requirement, the Madrid campus does offer a host family experience. Host family placement with meals is 3,900 euros per semester, plus an additional 200 euros housing deposit; host family placement without meals is 2,450 euros per semester, plus an additional 200 euros housing deposit. Please note that tuition is billed by the St. Louis campus, and housing is billed by the Madrid campus.

SLU-APPROVED STUDY ABROAD PROGRAM COST (other than Madrid):

Saint Louis University strives to make studying abroad as affordable as possible for all Saint Louis University students. The University aims to keep the cost of all study abroad programs fairly comparable to Saint Louis University tuition, room and board. The program fees below cover the listed inclusions, as well as international insurance, passport photos and predeparture materials.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND FINANCIAL AID:

Saint Louis University academic scholarships, federal loans and grants may apply for all SLU-approved semester/year programs (athletic scholarships do not apply). This policy provides the opportunity for study abroad to remain affordable for SLU students and encourages students to participate in these valuable study abroad programs. Students who wish to study abroad for more than one semester (excluding Lyon and Oxford) must contact the Office of Student Financial Services and submit an appeal to determine if their Saint Louis University academic scholarships, federal loans and grants may apply toward a second semester abroad.

ELIGIBILITY:

Sophomore or junior status in both good academic and disciplinary standing. Transfer students must complete one year on the St. Louis campus prior to participating in a semester abroad.
