

ANNOUNCING: UNIVERSITY WRITING SERVICES HONORS PROGRAM INITIATIVE!

Honors students will now be able receive up to 3 hours of “out of class” credit serving as Writing Consultants. All majors are welcome!

University Writing Services supports all students on campus and is looking for a diverse population of consultants! Honors Writing Consultants will complete a training program in the first four weeks of the semester then help other SLU students with their writing 3 hours a week. Training for Honors Writing Consultants will include short readings and critical reflections on consulting. Honors Writing Consultants will also have the opportunity to shadow experienced staff members prior to working with students.

University Writing Services is a dedicated group of individuals who form a vital service community on campus. Joining this community is a great opportunity to gain professional experience, but also an opportunity to help serve all of SLU.

If you are interested in applying, please email Alex Wulff at wulffam@slu.edu AND Robert Pampel at pampelrj@slu.edu. Honors Students will need to register for HR4810: Honors Teaching Assistantship in order to receive credit.
