

LEARNING COMMUNITY PROGRAM TRACKING

LEADERSHIP FOR SOCIAL CHANGE

Leadership for Social Change

This learning community (LC) is recommended for aspiring student leaders of all majors and specifically geared toward English, philosophy, theology, theatre, music, art history, studio art, foreign language, education, psychology, sociology, anthropology, and other arts and sciences majors. At the culmination of the residential experience, students will be holistically formed, critically reflective, and socially and personally responsible.

Curricular Experience:

Course participation is a mandatory component of the LC experience. As part of the curricular and co-curricular living-learning requirement of the community, ALL LSOC students will be pre-registered by the LC Academic Coordinator into UNIV 1010 and either SOC 1500 or ASTD 2700 during the fall semester as well as CMM 1000 and THEO 1000 during the spring semester. All courses offered to LSOC students have been identified by the Learning Community Development Team in collaboration with faculty to meet University requirements and requirements of the Arts and Sciences curriculum.

Requesting an Exemption

There are four general reasons that an LC student may be excused from one or more of their Learning Community courses: 1.) The student has prior credit; Advanced Placement/Dual Enrollment/Transfer credit. 2.) The student has not met a prerequisite for the LC course. 3.) The LC course conflicts with a requirement for their major; including a course sequence issue (please note: all other LC course options and scheduling options must be exhausted before an exemption is given to the student). 4.) The student is a student-athlete; in the Billiken Success Program; or in the INTO program and has a programming conflict.

To apply for an LC course exemption, students must contact their academic advisor and request that the advisor complete the exemption application found on the LC website:

<http://www.slu.edu/housing/living/learn/> Students who drop required LC courses without the approval of the LC program will forfeit their opportunity to obtain the Medallion award. Failure to be enrolled in at least one LC course during the Fall and one LC course in the Spring, without the approval of the LC Program is grounds for being required to leave the LC program, including housing reassignment onto a non-LC floor or a different residence hall.
