

Choosing SLU LAW Courses for the Uniform Bar Exam

Must Haves for the Multistate Bar Exam (MBE):

- The MBE is the second day of the Uniform Bar Exam and is the multiple choice day of the exam.
- It makes up 50% of the score for the Uniform Bar Exam.
- The MBE subjects are also tested on the Multistate Essay Exam, the essay portion of the Uniform Bar Exam. In other words, these classes double your money in terms of preparation.
- Much of the MBE subject areas are covered in the required first-year curriculum.
- However, there are some areas that are heavily tested on the MBE that are covered in upper-level electives. These are:
 - Evidence – An entire subject area on the MBE (25/200 questions)
 - Constitutional Law II – 50% of the Constitutional Law questions on the MBE
 - Criminal Procedure: Investigation – 40% of the Criminal Law questions on the MBE

Must Haves for the Multistate Essay Exam (MEE):

- The MEE makes up part of essay portion of the Uniform Bar Exam.
- It makes up approximately 30% of the score for the Uniform Bar Exam.
- Based on a review of the most heavily tested subjects on the MEE, and considering the difficulty of the subject areas to pick up for the first time on the bar exam, the following upper-level electives are strongly recommended for students:
 - Business Associations
 - Trusts and Estates
 - Secured Transactions
