Accommodations requested

I am requesting to continue the current academic accommodations I currently receive from SLU LAW.

List the approved academic accommodations from the last academic year you would like to continue using in the 2022-2023 academic year:

---

I am requesting to document a change in disability and/or a change to my disability accommodations.

Please describe the change in functional impact of your disability and the academic accommodations you are requesting. The review process for a change in accommodations usually requires an individual meeting to discuss needs and may require additional documentation prior to implementing accommodations.
