THANKSGIVING BREAK
Thanksgiving break is November 27th through November 30th.

Men's Mental Health Week
November 17th-24th

The Men's Mental Health Week is dedicated to raising awareness and support for mental health issues affecting our SLU community. The Fraternity Council and fraternity members will be tabling in the Busch Student Center all week to collect men's care products such as new razors, shampoo, toothpaste, deodorant, body wash, and soap.

They will also be handing out light blue ribbons to support "Movember" the movement to bring awareness to prostate cancer, mental health issues, and testicular cancer.

Sunday, November 24th will be a fraternity dodge ball tournament and mustache competition. The tournament entrance fee is donating 2 men's care products. The winning fraternity will receive 300 Greek Week points and all proceeds from the event will be donated to Movember. All are encouraged to come and participate/watch.

If you have any questions please feel free to email Benjamin Holtmann (Fraternity Council VP Programming) at benjamin.holtmann@slu.edu

INSPRINGRION
It is understanding that gives us an ability to have peace. When we understand the other fellow's viewpoint, and they understands ours, then we can sit down and work out our differences.

FSL HIGHLIGHT

Angelyn Chleborad is a stand out member of Kappa Alpha Theta at Saint Louis University. Angelyn is a senior studying Entrepreneurship and International Business. She serves as the Chief External Affairs Officer for Theta where she is in charge of overseeing marketing efforts, service, philanthropy, and alumnae relations. Outside of Theta Angelyn is the Events Coordinator for SLU Amnesty International and is a shift leader for Campus Kitchen. In addition, she works as an intern for STL Sitter and as a greeter at Nothing Bundt Cakes in Brentwood! Angelyn aspires to open her own bakery one day!
NOVEMBER PHILANTHROPY

Beta Theta Pi's philanthropy week to support The Women's Safe House is November 4th - November 9th. Beta will be hosting events all week to raise money that will be donated to organizations that help those affected by domestic abuse.

Gamma Phi Beta's philanthropy week supporting Girls Inc. is November 11th - November 13th. Girls Inc. is a research-based program delivered by trained professionals who focus on the development of the whole girl, supporting, mentoring, and guiding girls in an affirming, pro-girl environment.

Delta Gamma's half philanthropy week is November 13th - November 15th. Delta Gamma will finish off their fundraising on November 16th with their Hoops for Troops event, a 3 on 3 basketball tournament, to support Joining Forces.

Phi Delta Theta's philanthropy week supporting the Live Like Lou Foundation is November 18th - November 23rd. Live Like Lou is dedicated to finding a cure for those suffering from Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis (ALS). Phi Delt is looking forward to raising awareness and funds for Live Like Lou!

James Robbin, commonly known as JRobb, has been involved with FC since the spring of 2018. JRobb was a delegate for Phi Delta Theta until spring of 2019 when he took the position of IFC VP of Recruitment. Alongside IFC, JRobb is also the representative for fraternities on the FSL Task Force, which he has been involved with since the beginning of the year. In his fraternity, JRobb is Phi Delt’s Alumni Chair and PR chair. He is also looking forward to running for president of Phi Delt next semester. In the community, JRobb is an outgoing and enthusiastic personality. One of the things JRobb is working on for FSL is fostering a positive community between all chapters. JRobb promotes friendships, brotherhood, and sisterhood across all chapters.
