DOCUMENTATION AND ACCOMMODATIONS

I understand that requests for residential accommodations must be accompanied by current documentation of my diagnosed disability. The documentation that I present to the Center for Accessibility and Disability Resources (CADR) must meet documentation guidelines relevant to my academic coursework. While I am able to request accommodations, CADR has the right to determine appropriate and reasonable accommodations for my situation based on all information provided. CADR's final accommodation decision(s) may or may not coincide with information presented in the documentation and/or my personal preference. If I am informed that I need additional, up-to-date documentation for a specific accommodation request, I understand I am personally responsible for obtaining this information per general higher education procedures.
All documentation will be solely used for the purpose of determining both service eligibility and reasonable accommodations to be provided. Information from my documentation and specific reference of my diagnosed disability will not be placed on any official academic records or transcripts.

At this time, I have / have not submitted acceptable documentation for accommodation services.

- Failure to submit documentation may result in accommodation services being stopped until appropriate paperwork is submitted. In addition, CADR may advise changes to the initially agreed upon accommodations once documentation has been received and reviewed.

I have read the above information and understand the process and my responsibilities.

RELEASE OF INFORMATION

I, acknowledge that the information shared will be used for the sole purpose of applying for housing accommodations at Saint Louis University. I understand that in order to process my housing accommodations request, it may be necessary to share information regarding my disability with university personnel.

I realize that this information is for the housing accommodations process only. Should I need academic accommodations for my classes, I will need further the conversation of access needs with CADR. Although the housing and academic accommodations process are both facilitated through CADR, additional forms are required when requesting academic accommodations.

  Student's Signature:
  Date:

Please submit this form to the Center for Accessibility and Disability Resources (CADR) as an email attachment to accessibility_disability@slu.edu. The process of reviewing documentation can take up to 15 business days. Please note that some accommodations, including but not limited to, accessible room locations, emotional support animals, and additional room appliances can take 7-10 days to arrange once approved.

Therefore, timely submission of your requests and appropriate documentation are essential.
