

Proof of Foreign Language Proficiency via:

1. SLU Proficiency Test at approved score in languages offered at SLU
 - i. Proficiency Test must be taken prior to taking a college-level course in the language of the test.
 - ii. Proficiency Test may only be taken once per language.
2. Advanced Placement (AP) Exam at approved score
3. International Baccalaureate (IB) Exam at approved score
4. American Council on the Teaching of Foreign Languages (ACTFL) Testing at approved score
5. Common European Framework of References for Languages at approved score
6. Minimum equivalent score on any test/evaluation (e.g., TOEFL, IELTS, etc.) used to evidence English language proficiency for University admission. [Option only available to International students with citizenship from countries in which English is not the primary language]