

MANRESA ASSISTANTSHIP

In awarding Manresa Assistantship, Saint Louis University-Madrid Campus seeks to encourage its diverse graduate student population to contribute to our academic community. Assistantships are awarded based on student background, experience, and interests (as expressed in the Assistantship application) and on a competitive undergraduate GPA in the proposed area of graduate study, or in a related field of specialization.

The assistantship involves a 5-hour a week commitment, is awarded during the Fall, Spring, and Summer semesters on the Madrid Campus, has a 85 € per credit value and has a maximum value of 2,550 € to complete the program.

Possible assistantships include:

For the M.A. in Spanish:

Spanish Tutoring Center Assistantship

Assistants in the Spanish Tutoring Center work with undergraduate students on their Spanish language questions and concerns. They also visit the Spanish language classrooms to provide further assistance.

Spanish M.A. Teaching Assistant

Assistants work with a Spanish professor in one of the language classes, and gain valuable teaching experience.

Departmental Research Assistantship

Departmental research assistants help professors in carrying out tasks related to their research projects.

For the M.A. in Political Science and Public Affairs:

Observatory on Contemporary Crises (OCC) Assistantship

Recipients work with the Director of the OCC to assist in the commission, editing and writing of articles, managing contributors' databases, and communicating with authors.

Departmental Assistantship

Recipients work with a professor in the Department on a specific research project in the area of crisis or to support with the organization of conferences and promotional events.
