VeraContent Writing Internship

VeraContent is a multilingual copywriting agency for brands and publishers founded by an international team of writers, linguists and marketing professionals. Our main services include translation and multilingual content creation. We also run a popular lifestyle blog, Naked Madrid, and a guide for moving to Spain called Spainguru.es.

We are seeking passionate writers who are versatile and willing to take on various types of writing assignments, both for our clients and our internal publications.

This internship will help you hone your writing skills and learn to write for publication.

Main tasks and responsibilities:

● Working on translating and editing texts for major international clients, for both print and digital media.
● Assisting in a wide range of other projects, including social media, market research and copywriting.

What we're looking for:

● Excellent writing skills, mainly in English or Spanish - however we would also consider natives of other languages
● A passion for languages - knowledge of more than one language is a big plus!
● Enthusiasm and the ability to take initiative
● Great attention to detail in writing and editing
● Interest in technology and ability to quickly learn new software tools

You will be able to gain skills in the following areas:

● Writing, editing, proofreading, & translation
● Blogging and working with content management tools
● Learning project management workflow and applying quality standards

What you’ll enjoy:

● Building a real portfolio to show to future employers
● Learning how to use WordPress and other software tools used in the writing/translation/publishing industry
● Getting constructive feedback on all your work
● Working in a tight-knit and international team

To apply, send your resume to bolsatrabajo-madrid@slu.edu
Conditions:

- Minimum 20 hours / week
- At least one day a week in our office (near metro Atocha and Palos de la Frontera), the rest could be remote.
- The positions are unpaid, and you must be a current university student or recent graduate.
